

TS 18J-1

fol. 27. Recto: 24 lines, right margin mutilated. A writ in which witnesses, upon being asked about the matter, acknowledge that a man known as ^{אסבכי} before his death gave all of his belongings and possessions to his wife Sitt al-zaman b. Isaac ha-Zaken (the Merchant)--i.e., those possessions which he had "in the port of Alexandria" (והם אלתה לה בתגר אסבכנדריה). Date: last third of Iyyar 4945 A.M.= 1185 C.E., in Alexandria (בנא אמן דעל כף ימא רבה), by authority of Sar Shalom Halevi (ישותה דאדוננו שר שלום הלוי ראש ישיבת) (אמן ארץ הבבלי יהי שמו לעולם)

Signers: Joseph b. Abraham, Halfon b. Moses (i.e., the witnesses).

(In an additional note at the bottom of the document, we learn that Abu'l Murja al-Bayy [the Merchant]--full title: ^{אשיך אבו אכמרגא אכביאע מר מרגא} is a further witness concerning what is contained in the document; however, because of his illness, ^{הוא, (חולה)} he does not wish to sign. Witnesses to his testimony: Eli b. Elazar, Aaron b. Samuel b. Aaron the Physician (הרופא), Netaneel b. Masliah.)
