From Aden (l. 7) to Egypt (l. 14 of).

Time: During the office of the Rayyis (or Hebrew Nagid) or Head of the Jewish Community is Egypt Abraham the son of <sup>Moses</sup> Maimonides 1204-1237. As he is mentioned <sup>in our</sup> ~~called~~ <sup>reformed</sup> and undefeasible way Abu l-Muna, the offspring of our Master Moses, ~~may he~~ the letter was certainly written at early during Ab. Maimon's office. Later on, when A. M. our great fame as a scholar in letters, people mentioned spoke of him in lightening terms.

A very considerable part must have been torn off a lost. There remained the last 14 lines of p. 1 (11 of them complete), the rest of <sup>one</sup> ~~long~~ <sup>margin</sup> on the margin of p. 1, ~~which shows that~~ and 15 lines of p. 2, ~~at~~ (12 complete) which are the direct continuation of the margin of p. 1.

The <sup>purpose</sup> ~~main~~ subject of the part of the letter preserved is the following. <sup>The unknown owner</sup> had a shipping of pearls belonging to been delivered to a Sherif Mercader <sup>at</sup> (l. 3), who refused to give it back to its proprietor. The only of the latter reports about a testimony given by one of the Khair al-Halal in the court checked by the Madras Board in Aden that the Musaffar refused to be heard over the speaker because the speaker had advised him to hand them over to the address
