

The Josiah b. Aaron A Leon of Jerusalem asks the Community of Damietta, Egypt, for Funds after the Fatimid Caliph al-Hakim had discontinued his Contributions to the Yeshiva of Jerusalem
 ca 1015

13 J 26, f 16 ed. Mann II 69-70

The hand of the scribe is not distinguished at all, neither is the Hebrew style when in its simplicity a matter-of-factness contrasts starkly with the another letter by Josiah, addressed to Fustat, and which is entirely in high flying rhymed prose. V

V 13 J 14 f 10. Verso is not blank as stated by Mann. 66, back contains the address in Ar. letters. To our masters & elders the elders of the synagogues from J. G. A. to L. 2nd y.
 To Fustat. " Thus, there is no necessity to state about this letter that it was "sent probably to Egypt."
