As described in Med Soc, I. p. 96, n. 26

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a medical or scientific record, covering the majority of the page. The text is written in dark ink on a light background and is organized into several lines, some of which are indented. The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language or context.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on a light background. It appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to a legal or administrative record. The script is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, continuing the list or series of entries from the previous block. The text is written in a dark ink on a light background. It appears to be a continuation of the same document or a related one. The script is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature.
