a merchant from Aleppo and another from Raqqa (on the Euphrates). As the date (November) indicates, the goods had to reach Allān before he set out for the route to India. 'Ullā is advised also to take delivery of the sums for the writer.

Letter in Arabic by Khalaf B. Isaac (see II, 1, above), to Aden, to 'Allan B. Hassan, Aydhab. After his return from Egypt, Khalaf returned to Aden. He was unable to find the goods desired by his Cairene customers. Khalaf is sending now to Aden large quantities of Oriental products which Allan would carry on to the E. region.
