Settina MEDITERRANEAN PEOBLE, Vol. I: Their Material World

(Abbreviations: R \* Prepared for Readings in Medit. History (typed) (N) = Nahray-MichaelDL = Draft in Longhand T = Text attached or in the file Med. People, Texts \* Translated by me previously (\*) " into Heb. only) ++ Edited by me into Heb. only) The Mediterranean force. 1 Thanks for a Bequest from Spain, Sent from Jerusalem to Egypt together with Religious Instruction. Loan 14, MT I, 320-322. ca. 1038 2. Come back to Jerusalem. A personal and business letter, sent from Jerusalem to Rustat. ca. 1051 Octorgla in the Styrish Pahara. 3. From Jerusalem to Toledon Spain. A Family Letter. ca 1058 former of The KIT 5 4. A Frustrated Pilgramage to the Holy City. A Maghrebi writes after the First Crusade. Bodl. b 11, f. 7 1100  $\mathbf{R}$ 5. An Appeal for the Jewish Refugees from Jerusalem after its TS 20. 133++\* Conquest by the Crusaders. 1100 R 6. Death of a Beloved - Punishment for Leaving Jerusalem. A Letter of the court physician of the Sultan al-Malik al-'Azīz, Saladin's son and successor (1193-1198). TS 24.72 ++ (\*) 7. A Report from Ramle, Israel, about business in Tripolitand Tyre, Lebanon, and a disastrous sea voyage back. 10 %. Tyrian Glass Sold in Egypt. A Power of Attorney given in Tyre, Lebanon, on January 25, 1011. Assaf Tarbiz 9, 196+ 3. From Damascus to Fustat. A Business letter from Tyre. dealing promuyently with the export of Damacecus DE 1080 J 42 5.508 1200 18 2283)

B. Letter to an eye doctor in Jennalen sent by his father from a Canavan station in the Sinai Desert (early thirteenth century). Boll-HEMS Heb. d 66, f. 57 Ket The

がからできること

いいはかというななしまるとう

```
A. Around the Mediterranean - Continued
                    10-11. Iraqi Jews in Damascus. Two Entries from the Marriage
                  Register of their Synagogue. February-March, 933.
                -->10. A Betrothal Agreement. Feb. 14, 933. TS 16.181
                                                                 Assaf Texts
                                                                                      \mathbf{D}\mathbf{L}
                \rightarrow 11. A Marriage Contract. March, 28, 933 Leshonenu ^{++(*)}
                                                                                      DL
                                                 Lost during the rule of
                    12. Houses in Damascus Servestered Tow a Rapacious Governor.
                  Three Court Records, 1094-1095. Eretz Israel VIII + + (*) T
                    13. A Sicilian in the Service of the Egyptian Government, who had a wife in Damascus, is restrained by the Jewish Court nequired by in Fustat from marrying a wife in Egypt, as required by the
the Egyptian government.
                  Government. Dec. 1139 and April-May, 1140.
keep a family
                                        TS 13 J 2, f. 25 ₹+ቻ
                    14. A Jerusalem Pilgrim from Egypt, fleeing from the Seljuks, finds a new home in Salonika, Greece. TS Ar. Box 53, f. 37.
                                                     1090
                                                Ca
                     15. A Physician and Poet urges his relatives in Fatimid.
                  Egypt to join him in Byzantine Asia Minor. July 21, 1137.
                                           Tarbiz-Speculum
                                                                                          R
      Principle 18. Letter from Amalfi. 8 Ja 1, f. 5. (+ + ) (*)

a Secher of god from Organism Southern Havy

17. The Story of Johannes-Obadiah (+ +)
                            Start with my first discovery.
                     Palermo.
19. Invitation to Sicily. TS 13 J 26, f. 10. + + *
                   20. A Journey from Palermo to Messina. (+ +) 1154 (*) R

10

18. Exports from Sicily. An Account. Ar. Box 54, f. 88 (+ +)*
                                                                         ca. 1052.
             A Judge arites to his colleague Telechter * 9 * +) to and Shaked 49
```

```
21. A Letter of Introduction, sent from France to Egypt.
                                                         BM Or 5544, f. 1 MJ II, 191 and Golb, Rouen
     Quint 1 22. Merchants from Egypt and the Maghreb visit Genoa and Marseilles.
                                                                                                Arabic Box 56 f. 617
                                        23. From Toulouse, France, to Cordova, Spain.
                                                                                                TS Loan 45
                                         24. From Baghdad to Cordova: 953.
                                                                             Bodl. f 34, fs. 39-44a+ Cowley JQR,18
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 R
                                         Four Letters from Spain, Holographs of the illustrious
                     C ⇒ Hebrew poet Judah ha-Levi
                                         29. Ahout a Present, sent from Egypt to Lucena, Spain.
                                         39.2 A Spanish merchant writes from Fez, Morocco to his Father in
                                    Almeria, Spain
                                         32. The Tale of a Goldsmith from Ceuta, who, fleeing from the Almohad Persecutions, emigrated first to Sicily and then to Egypt
January January Tanuary Tanuar
                                         33. On Listening to Music (Two legal opinions sent from Baghdad \sqrt{s} to Tunisia).
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    R
                          34. The Allied Jewish Appeal of Qayrawan. ca. 1010. + + (*)

35. The Tunisian Representative of he Baghdad Yeshivas writes to Ibn 'Awkal, the Head of the African Diocese. 13 J 36, f. 1
                                    36. The Nagia, or Head of the Jews of Tunisia thanks Ibn 'Awkal for being helpful at the burial of his father in Jerusalem.

10 J 9, f. 26 + + (*)
     Aug. 16, 999. Goldziner REJSOT MT I 151- 2
                                                                                                         to gam
                                                                                    Businer, Lette, from Quemawan
```

To: vo Counts international 38. A Law Case involving Goods and Books sent from the Muslim West, Heirs from Baghaad, a Sicilian attorney, and the Jewish Courts of Baghdad, Israel, and Egypt. 10 J 4, $. 3, Mann JQR 9 (1918/19), 152+ 39. A Family and Business Letter sent from Tunisia to Egypt. TS 16. 179 40. A Letter from Tripoli, Lybia. A cantor who was taken captive by the Normans on the island of Jerba and ransomed, writes to his benefactor in Cairo.  强强在违位的延迟或强强强强的 10 J 15, f. 26 41. An Ancient Marriage Contract from Barqa, Libya. Public Affer, Aug. 28, 990. Bodl. a2, f. 2, Assaf 42. The Egyptian Scroll of 1012 43. Letter of the Jewish Chief Judge of Egypt to a Community in the Nile Delta. MS Theodor Reinach the accence of Fuctat, 1143.

To 13 7 3, f. 3 + + (*)

445. Note, sent from Alexandria ter Fuetat, about an errand done for a business friend in Morocco and Spain in Fustat. 166, 8.52 46. Agreement between Foreigners, partners in a Three-Story House in al-Mahalla. TS 16,140 47. Letter to a Sik Weaver in Aswan. 8 J 26, f. 18 48. From Iran to Egypt. A Unique Business letter. 13 J 25, f. 18 March 5, 1026

49. A Moroccan writing from Baghdad asks his relatives in Egypt to help a compatriot on his way back home.

Late twelft century. 8 J 21, f. 22 LD

50. Escape from the Mongols. A Letter about happenings in Mosul and environment. December 1236.

Bodl. a 3, f. 24 + + * (*) LDV = and + Braslawski

The where

Around the Meditemanean 12:247+ M$ 11 118 1030 lenusalem to Onargla in the thered 142 1041 Come Back to Jenusalem DK 18++ Epstein 1 1058 ULC Or 1080 2 21 ++ 5- B. - Consader ether Fryhell Times see $10. X B TV 14 P. o. Decle 8 teller to an eye tocto 学院の後のないとのなる とのできる

Aug.31, April 13, 1971

MEDITERRANEAN PROPLE: LETTERS AND DOCUMENTS FROM THE CAIRO GENIZA

TRANSLATED INTO ENGLISH And Constituted of Part Kalunce I Setting

The Material Environment

To A PARKET II

Communal, Social, and Family Life

VOLUNE I

第四世界は、今公内をはい、50mg

A. Around the Mediterranean.

The Holy Land. Nos. 1-6. Its Northern Neighbors. Nos. 7-13.
Byzantium. 14-17.- Italy and France. Nos. 16-27.- Spain. Nos. 24-30.- North Africa. Nos. 31-41.- Egypt. Nos. 42-47.- East of the Euphrates. Nos. 48-50.

B. Contracts and Court Records of Economic Purport:

I. Partnerships and Commendas. - III. Agreement Employment
III. Taxfarming and Livenses. - IV. Loans and Leise Torgetts

Debts. - V. Desta of Sale and Cift. - VI. Depositions is and Releases.

Releases.

C. Business Correspondence. Leffers of Traler.

(This comprises all the enclosures, such as possents, bills of lading, inventories, lists of prices, etc.)

D. Accounts. Inventories and

E. Housing.

Sale, gift, rent of houses. Statements and Bescriptions.

Begin perhaps with descriptions. (Largely ready from preceding work)

E, Traffic and Travel (Targely ready)

Micha Perple Part I 50 pieces to be split up tetween BT 30 \ Parturn facto reduce Taxtaruning Employer wit " 12-- Loans C $2 Leller, megnitie = Prince tou というないでは、おはないないないできませんできませんがある。 = Entp. " Fuel Grunish A. Azoned the MchRewaneau () : N, michenan How marry exolet. + histor 37.38. HI 142. 43. 18.19.20 . 25-24 . 29 3. Not e delet: q. 22, 31, 32, 29, 40, 45 + 46, 47. 41. 49. Centuries, 10th: 10-11. 23. 24. 57 12 th : 4.5.6.13.15.17. 1 19.20 . 20.25.20.20.20.20.40.